

COMMUNITY AND GOVERNMENT RELATIONS COMMITTEE MANDATE

1. PURPOSE

The Community and Government Relations Committee (“Committee”) is a committee of the board of directors (the “Board”) of Continental Gold Inc. (the “Company”). Its primary function is to assist the Company and the Board in fulfilling their respective obligations relating to reviewing community and government relations matters, including corporate social responsibility and environmental impact, concerning the Company, government and community, including its oversight responsibilities with respect to:

- (a) monitoring of, and providing strategic guidance for, the development and implementation of the Company’s community, government relations and corporate social responsibility policies, programs and activities;
- (b) monitoring the effectiveness of community, government relations and corporate social responsibility programs and activities;
- (c) receiving updates from management with respect to community, government relations and corporate social responsibility matters;
- (d) monitoring current and future regulatory issues relating to community, government relations and corporate social responsibility matters;
- (e) building and maintaining sound relationships within the communities in which the Company operates; and
- (f) making recommendations to the Board, where appropriate, on significant matters pertaining to community and government relations and corporate social responsibility.

2. COMPOSITION

- (a) The Committee is appointed by the Board, and will report to the Board through the Committee Chair following meetings of the Committee on matters considered by the Committee on community, government relations and corporate social responsibility matters relative to the Company.
- (b) The Committee shall be appointed by the Board annually at the first meeting of the Board following the annual general meeting of the Company, and shall be comprised of a minimum of three directors and no more than six directors. If an appointment of members of the Committee is not made as prescribed, the members shall continue as such until their successors are appointed. At least one member will be an independent director.
- (c) The Board may remove a member of the Committee at any time in its sole discretion by resolution of the Board. The Board may fill vacancies on the Committee by election from its members. Any member of the Committee shall automatically cease to be a member of the Committee upon ceasing to be a director.
- (d) The Chair of the Committee will be designated by the Board from among the members of the Board. If for any reason a Chair of the Committee is not appointed by the full Board, members of the Committee may designate a Chair of the Committee by majority vote of the full membership of the Committee.

3. MEETINGS

- (a) The Committee will meet regularly at times necessary to perform the duties described herein in a timely manner, but not less than once a year. Meetings may be held at any time deemed appropriate by the Committee.
- (b) The time and place of the meetings of the Committee, the calling of meetings and the procedure in all things at such meetings shall be determined by the Chairman of the Committee. A meeting of the Committee may be called by notice, which may be given by written notice, telephone, facsimile, email or other electronic communication, given at least 48 hours prior to the time of the meeting, provided that no notice of a meeting will be necessary if all of the members are present either in person or by means of conference telephone or if those absent waive notice or otherwise signify their consent to the holding of such meeting.
- (c) Any member of the Committee may participate in a meeting of the Committee by means of conference telephone, and the member participating in a meeting pursuant to this paragraph shall be deemed, for purposes hereof, to be present in person at the meeting.
- (d) The Committee may hold an in camera session without any senior officers present at each meeting.
- (e) The Committee will keep minutes of its meetings which shall be available for review by the Board.
- (f) The Committee may appoint any individual, who need not be a member, to act as the secretary at any meeting.
- (g) The Committee may invite such directors, senior officers and other employees of the Company and such other advisors and persons as is considered appropriate to attend any meeting of the Committee.
- (h) The presence of a majority of the committee members will constitute a quorum at each meeting.
- (i) Any matter to be determined by the Committee will be decided by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Committee called for such purpose. Each member will have one vote and decisions of the Committee will be made by an affirmative vote of the majority. The Chairman will not have a deciding or casting vote in the case of an equality of votes. Any action of the Committee may be taken by an instrument or instruments in writing signed by all of the members of the Committee (including in counterpart) and any such action will be as effective as if it had been decided by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Committee called for such purpose.
- (j) The Committee shall report its determinations and recommendations to the Board.

4. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The responsibilities of a member of the Committee shall be in addition to such member's duties as a member of the Board. The duties and responsibilities of the Committee, with input from management, shall be as follows:
